This week at School

What a brilliant second week of this busy Spring 2 term we've had! There's been so much happening around school. Year 3 and 4 had an amazing visit to a local high school where the children got to listen to Dermot O'Leary and even received signed copies of his new book. It was a real treat for everyone involved and such a special opportunity for our pupils. World Book Day was absolutely fantastic. We really went all out to make it a day to remember. Years 1 and 2 enjoyed visits to Waterstones bookshop, and we were delighted to welcome an author into school. One of the best parts of the day was seeing our older pupils spending time reading to our younger children - it was lovely to watch those connections being made through stories. We finished the day with a brilliant assembly that really celebrated everything books mean to us.

I have to say, the World Book Day costumes were fantastic. I'd also like to give a huge thank you to my amazing staff who got right into things too - their costumes were brilliant and their enthusiasm made such a difference to how special the day felt.

On the sporting front, our Year 5 and 6 boys took part in a football competition after school this week. It was a bit wet on the day, but that certainly didn't dampen anyone's spirits! What really stood out to me was the amazing behaviour, sportsmanship and teamwork on display. We're so proud of you all.

I want to take a moment to celebrate the children across the whole school. They've been working so hard, showing fantastic behaviour and putting in real effort across everything they do. Thank you all for being part of what makes Cathcart Street Primary School such a special place.

We have been enjoying...

It has been a wonderful week across the school as we celebrated World Book Day. We have all loved immersing ourselves in the magic of stories and taking part in a variety of fun activities throughout the week.

Our younger readers in Years 1 and 2 had a brilliant time visiting Waterstones, where they enjoyed browsing the shelves and personally spending their World Book Day vouchers. Meanwhile, Years 3 and 4 were treated to an inspiring trip to a local high school, where they loved hearing author Dermot O'Leary read from his latest book. A huge thank you to Waterstones book store and Birkenhead High School Academy for hosting!
